THE CLASS OF 1971

NEW BEDFORD VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

As we, the Class of '71, say our farewells, we sincerely thank everyone at New Bedford Vocational High School for helping us to get through the past four years — years which have been enjoyable and rewarding.

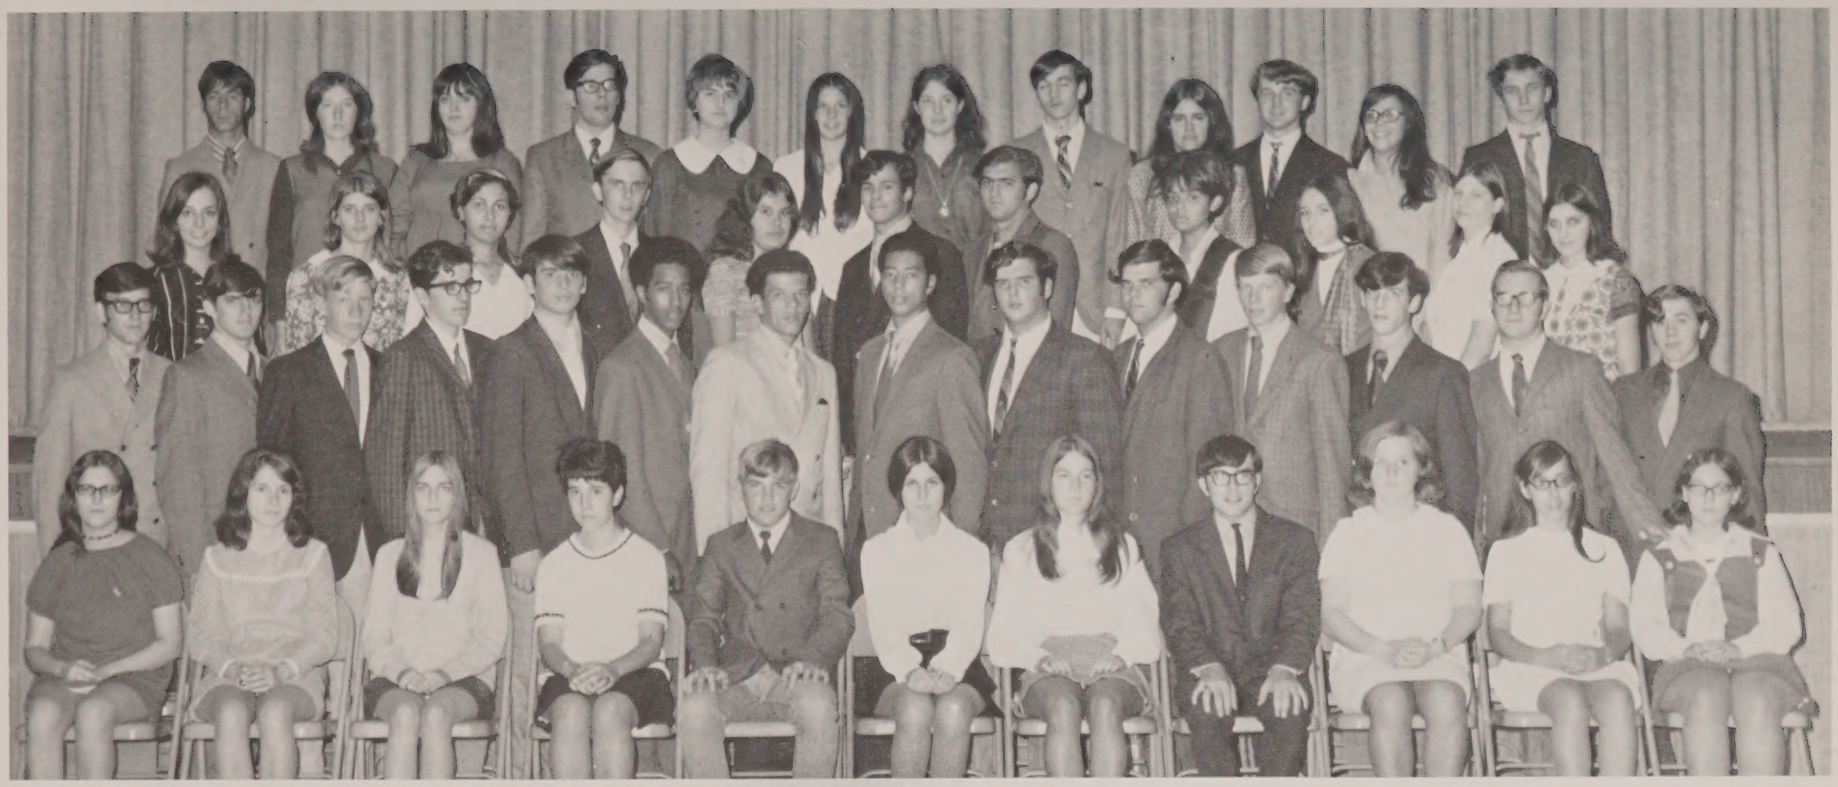
Mr. Janiak and his excellent staff have played a major role in preparing us to fulfill our dreams for the future. We will try to make everyone here proud of us.

Again, many thanks to Mr. Janiak, Miss Cronin, and everyone else who has given encouragement and guidance to us, the Class of '71.

Co-editors of the yearbook are Margaret Czabon and Stanley Correia.

YEARBOOK ADVISORS

YEARBOOK ADVISORS: Mrs. J. Huffington, Mr. D. Gabriel, Mr. F. Foley.



YEARBOOK STAFF

2nd Row: R. Chace, D. Brightman, H. Isaksen, D. Swain, J. Dugan, R. Britto, G. Pope, S. Correia, D. Borges, J. Groton, E. Isaksen, P. Dupont, R. Babineau, D. Richard.

The distinguishing characteristic of this class and the many who have preceded them is motivation. Talent without motivation is of little use either to the individual or to society.

Lewis Terman made the observation that historical geniuses were characterized not only by very high intelligence but by the desire to excel, by perseverance in the face of obstacles, and by zeal in the exercise of their gifts.

All of you have demonstrated the discipline and tenacity of purpose so necessary to succeed in your individual goals.

This same motivation which fulfilled your needs as individuals must now be directed to the social order in which you will participate. Keep in mind always that the free society is still the exceptional society. To most of the world's peoples this concept is still unobtainable or they live under governments which have no desire to foster freedom.

The world is full of people who believe that men need masters. The survival of the idea for which this nation stands is not inevitable. It will survive only if you care enough.

A free society must continuously prove that it is capable of — and worthy of — survival.

This society needs the devotion of free, rational, responsible individuals. You are these people.

Z. Walter Janiak, Director

Congratulations to the Class of '71 and best wishes in all future endeavors.

Albert C. Wobecky,

DEDICATION

We, the Class of '71, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Alice McCue, R.N., who has been our friend, as well as our teacher. Mrs. McCue has not only been willing to listen to our problems, but also has tried to understand and encourage us.

We thank you, Mrs. McCue, for all that you have given us, for there is no greater gift than yours — love which can never be replaced.

We love you; we will miss you; we will never forget you.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1971, are proud to dedicate the 1971 Mariner to Mr. Paul M. Duval.

Known for his dedication, Mr. Duval is constantly involved with the development of the students at N.B.V.H.S., whether it be in an extracurricular activity or within the regular school day. Mr. Duval's honest approach is one we respect. We students fully recognize his dedication to teaching, accept the wisdom of his advice, and most of all appreciate his sincere interest in each of us.

To you, Mr. Duval, we dedicate the 1971 Mariner.

The Girls' Department has three equally important goals. The first is to prepare students to be proficient homemakers; the second, to train them for productive employment as early as possible; and the third, to help them to become responsible citizens.

By the time students complete their senior year, they have received the knowledge and experience which enable them to shop wisely for food, and to prepare well-balanced meals for individuals, families, and even institutions. They have also been trained in the preparation of refreshments for various types of social functions. In addition, many of our senior girls have become accomplished seamstresses, who have acquired much skill in basic sewing, and even in tailoring. Some also have become adept at other types of needlework, such as crocheting and embroidering.

Much thought and effort are being given today, moreover, to equipping our students so that they can seek profitable employment while still in school and after graduation. To this end, courses are offered in record keeping, typewriting, the cash register, and other office machines. For the last two years, some of our girls have also been encouraged to choose as a major either the Nursery Program or the Nurse Aide Program, so that they will be qualified aides upon graduation. It is hoped that even more-diversified training for work will be available to our students in the near future.

In addition to the courses already mentioned, all students are required to take a variety of academic subjects, so that they will become well-informed, thinking individuals who are ready to assume responsible adult roles in our ever-changing society.

NURSE AIDES

This is the second year that there has been a Nurse Aide Program in the Household Arts Department. Enrolled in the program are eight girls, who are instructed by Mrs. Alice McCue, R.N. Most of the girls want to become either registered or licensed practical nurses after graduation.

On Tuesday mornings, the girls meet in a classroom which is set up similar to a typical hospital, with all the necessary equipment. They practice on each other or on demonstration dolls.

Students go on Wednesdays to St. Luke's Hospital, where they work from 8:15 to 11 A.M. Mrs. Jean DeCoffe, R.N., accompanies the girls as their instructor at the hospital. Our aides make occupied and unoccupied beds, feed and wash patients, and make them more comfortable in numerous other ways. The patients and hospital personnel enjoy seeing our students' neat white uniforms, green aprons, and name tags. They also appreciate their hard work.

In addition to doing classroom and hospital work, students taking this course go on field trips to various medical buildings and hospitals, where they gain further insight into the duties of a nurse.

CHILD CARE AIDES

The Nursery School Program for this year consists of twelve girls who would like to work with children after graduation.

We go to different schools so as to be exposed to various situations involving children. The Jewish Community Center, the New Bedford, Day Nursery, and the New Bedford Center for the Mentally Retarded, as well as Head-start and Onboard, welcome us. The completion of our training, we will be qualified child care aides ready for employment.

We are happy to welcome Mrs. Alice Frazier to the program, and to thank Mrs. Hope Collins, our teacher, for her help and guidance.

NURSERY

A loud horn sounds, a tambourine taps, a drum rolls, and above the noise can be heard children marching and singing. This is the nursery, a small school within a school, where children are being prepared to start kindergarten.

This new training program for the senior girls helps them to understand and communicate with youngsters. Mrs. Hope Collins, our instructor, gives us much time and guidance as she teaches us to express our ideas about and feelings toward children.

We all welcome Mrs. Alice Frazier to our program, and thank her for her valuable assistance.

The highlight of the season was a Solid 24-6 Thanksgiving Day victory over arch-rival Diman Vocational. The young team was led by co-capts. Jim Costa and Gary Pope. The latter being selected on everyone's "All Bristol County Team." Even though Vocational will be losing nine valuable seniors the future looks bright. The reason it looks bright is because of an 8-0 season posted by the freshmen.

BASKETBALL

Following the act of the 1969-70 Tech Tourney quarter-finalists is a tough chore, even for a hard working Artisan. This was the task facing Coach Ed Lowney and his assistant Terry Gomes. The absence of real height was a problem for Voke this year with the only "Big man" 6'2" freshman Hartmut Andrade. Voke's Success depended on the scoring of Bobby Desrosiers, the rebounding of Andrade, the defensive hustle of Joe Delgado, the ball-handling wizardry of slick Eddie Gomes, and of course the fine all-around play of Captain Gary Pope, who incidentally will be sorely missed after four years of dedication to this Hillman Street school.

The most pleasant surprise of the '70-'71 edition had to be Junior Mike Boswell. Time and again, Mike came off the bench to ignite a Voke rally.

Rounding out the varsity squad were hustling Paul Morris, Tom Bastoni, Russ Reeves, and Dave Donaghy.

Vocational's 1970 baseball team started out with a player nucleus consisting of Mark and Paul Rioux, Bob Derosiers, Gerry Richard, Mal Sherman, Paul Bouchard, Jerry Lemieux, Tom Kirk, Steve Vaughn and Robert McCarthy.

The game record was seven wins — eight losses. Several games were not decided until the final inning. Outstanding was the pitching of Mark Rioux. He was highly respected by the opposition. He has been regarded as a good major league candidate. His hitting was a big factor in our wins.

We look forward to the coming season with all veterans returning with the exception of Mark Rioux. Voke will have to be reckoned with the leaders of Bristol county baseball. The freshman crop of candidates looks promising. We hope to encourage more upperclassmen to lend their talents to the squad.

Though not originally intended, the 1970 season began as a building year with only five veterans on the starting squad. Several of the eventual starters had never played soccer prior to the season's start.

After an opening game defeat by New Bedford High, the team jelled and ran a string of victories to a 5-1 record. Of particular note was the fact that inexperienced players displayed dogged determination and Spartan courage to amass this record.

The season's record was 8 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie, including victories over Diman Vocational, Attleboro, Westport, Bishop Connolly, Holy Family, and Old Rochester in two non-league contests.

Forward Mike Boswell was named to the All-Star Team, with Dave Donaghy, John Costa, and Ed Simmons gaining honorable mentions.

A returning nucleus should keep Vocational a first division team in 1971.

TRACK TEAM

Our Spring track 1970 team suffered a set-back when Bill Leahy, 1969's 100 yard Bristol County Champion, did not compete. Gary Pope placed fourth in the 100 yard finals at Attleboro. Rico Ramos won the Bristol County High Jump finals at Attleboro.

Winter track 1970-71 turn-out has been an improvement but still not as large as we'd like it to be. P. Tiernan, E. Isaksen, R. Andrade, D. Wilson, M. Viera, P. Rioux, along with some promising freshmen should help us considerably.

GOLF

After an absence of two years, Vocational again joined the competition in the Southeastern Mass. golf League. The most consistent point-getter for Coach Risgin's Artisans was Tom Bastoni. Youth was on the side of the Voke "duffers," with five of the six starters returning this year.

Lettermen included: Bastoni, Gene Carroll, Steve Pelletier, Dave Lyonnais, Dana Gemme, Mike Medeiros, and Dan Smith.

KEY CLUB

The N.B.V.H.S. Key Club, sponsored by the N.B. Kiwanis Club and Kiwanis International, is comprised of sophomore, junior, and senior boys. Each boy, who applies, is screened by both instructors and members for qualities of leadership and dependability.

The purpose of the club is to do charitable work in our community. Fund raising projects are run to earn money for this purpose. In 1970 the club raised funds by selling cushions, soda at the Senior Dance, letter openers, key chains and Christmas trees. With the money realized a Halloween party for the children at St. Mary's Home was given, a Thanksgiving basket was donated to a needy family, part of the proceeds from the Christmas trees was given to Quarters For Christmas, and the members worked as a clean-up team at the Kennedy Center.

These young men sacrifice much of their leisure time but are touching many hearts and gaining a special feeling toward each other, their club, and their school. It is students like this who will help to build a better community and world.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

The Household Arts Traffic Squad for 1970-1971 has forty-four members, including the following: President, Dianne Albert: Secretary, Carolyn Houtman: and Treasurer, Janet Beaulieu.

The duty of a traffic officer is to keep law and order. Every member of the squad must, first of all, respect and obey each rule herself. She must keep others in order, making sure that no one runs or makes unnecessary noises. The protection of others is kept foremost in her mind.

The first traffic offense calls for a warning, and further offenses call for detentions, which are issued by the traffic advisor, Miss Margaret Goggin.

Every year members go on a field trip — one that is enjoyable, educational and has been chosen by the girls.

HONOR SOCIETY

New Bedford Vocational High School's Technical Chapter of the National Honor Society, which was organized in 1962, has a membership of thirty-one this year.

A scholastic average of eighty-five per cent or better, as well as service and leadership abilities are required to join. Membership is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

Meetings, which are held on the first Thursday of each month, are under the supervision of our advisors, Mrs. Thelma Bagley and Mr. Lionel Neron.

Dues and annual Fanny Farmer candy sales enable the group to send representatives to area National Honor Society functions, enjoy field trips, and donate to the New Bedford Vocational High School Scholarship Fund.

Officers this year are president, James Fontaine; vice-president, Kent Gallego; secretary, Gail Landry; and treasurer, Dianne Albert.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

Community Workers consists of Junior and Senior girls who are willing to devote a couple of hours of their own time, to cook with the girls at St. Mary's Home. A pair of girls go at a time, and teach the children how to cook some of the recipes they have learned here at Vocational. The Community Workers have a class of girls ranging in age from 7 to 14. Together they have made such recipes as candied apples, pancakes, cookies, french toast, eggs in a nest and cakes. The children look forward to each meeting, and they are a cooperative and inventive class. The Community Workers enjoy each meeting as well as the children do and it proves to be a great experience. They receive a lot of help and advice from their advisor, Miss Goggin.

One of the many clubs at New Bedford Vocational High School is the Biology Club. The club recruits interesting and informative speakers, such as lab technicians, nurses, and members of the police department.

This year our president is Susan Giard; our vice-president is Claudette Rogissart; our secretary is Joyce Goes; and our treasurer is Forina Soares. Judy Pina is head of the planning committee.

Mrs. Stringer, our advisor, is well liked by all the girls, who appreciate the real interest she shows. She is always there to help us in any way she can.

A field trip is planned for the club at the close of each school year. Funds to sponsor club activities, such as scholarships and trips, are obtained through diligent work on the part of all members. Cakes, candy, and various other items are successfully sold for these purposes.

Anyone who joins the Biology Club can be sure of having enjoyable and educational experiences.

J.A. REPORTERS

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

The boys and girls who participate in Junior Achievement join this organization in order to learn the intimate workings of the business world. These teanagers produce and control their own individual companies under adult supervision.

Junior Achievement Reporters are high school students who write news for the school page of The Standard-Times of New Bedford. Their stories concern class trips, elections, dances, and various other school activities.

Reporters for this year are Joyce Goes and Nancy Briggs.

SLIDE RULE CLUB

Mr. Duval
Robert Michaud, Robert Mandeville, James Goes

SLIDE RULE CLUB

With their advisor, Mr. Duval, the members meet every Monday and Wednesday at 2:30 P.M. from the 2nd Monday after the start of school until the week of December 22nd.

The boys must have their own slide rule and no grades are given.

The members are instructed in basic scale reading, multiplication, division, multiplication and division combined, squaring numbers, squaring roots, cubing numbers, and cube roots.

Some instruction in trigonometry is offered if time is available. Special problems using all of the above systems are given to be solved. Practice is done in the place number system and power of ten system to determine decimal places in answers.

CLASS HISTORY

When we, the present Seniors at New Bedford Vocational High School, began our freshman year after a summer of impatient waiting, we were excited and anxious to find out what high school would be like. It did not take long for us to realize that we had become part of a friendly and cooperative student body.

Although we made numerous mistakes the first few days, we soon became adjusted to our new routines, and everything began to go more smoothly.

When we attended our first school dance as guests of the Junior class, we had the opportunity to become better acquainted with each other. Many of us also took part throughout the year in various clubs, sports, and other activities. The weeks passed quickly.

Since this was the easiest of our four years and we were preoccupied with getting off to a good start, we hardly noticed how the months were flying. Almost overnight it seemed that we had become sophomores.

As we entered our second year of high school, we had no ideas about all of the different things we'd be doing. Mrs. Morrissey, the girls' English teacher, took us to see "Romeo and Juliet", which was playing in Boston.

Then Lady Luck came our way and our players won our first football game in five years when pitted against Blue Hills Regional High.

The Charles Palmer Davis Award for excellence in Civics was presented to Andrea Simmons at one of our final assemblies.

As the end of the year drew near and the weather warmed up, we girls held a fashion show so that our parents and friends could see the many garments that we had made.

September arrived again, we came back to school as upperclassmen. The first big event of the year was to elect our officers. After a hard week of campaigning, the results showed Ricardo Britto as President; Diane Archambault as Vice-President; Nancy Briggs, Secretary; and Gary Pope, Treasurer.

To welcome the Freshmen, the Juniors sponsored a dance in their behalf. After a hectic week, the turnout made it very successful.

An exciting part of our February vacation was to go to the Ice Follies being held in Boston. Peggy Fleming, the guest star, presented a tremendous performance. This is a trip which is to be long remembered.

Receiving our class rings was an exciting moment. In the months that followed, "Voke" jackets were sold, and several cake sales were put on as a means of raising money.

The basketball season of this year will not soon be forgotten. After one of the biggest games of the year in which we beat Durfee High School, the auditorium echoed with cries of "Boston Garden, here we come!"

Yes, we made the Boston Garden. The first game was well fought against Xaverian High with a victory score of 75-61. In the next basketball season, we made a pledge to go all the way.

Before we realized it, May arrived and with it, the Junior Prom. After the traditional march, the crowning of the king and queen took place. Nancy Briggs and Einar Isaksen were the lucky winners. Rosemarie Jesus and Lorraine Vezina were the ladies-in-waiting.

The last event of our Junior year came in June with our Class Outing. At Cathedral Camp, we participated in soccer, swimming, football, and had a day filled with fun.

The year we had completed had been a wonderful one. We left Vocational (this year) knowing this time next year our leaving would be for good.

As all good things come to an end, we returned to school in September, 1970, after a long, hot, enjoyable summer.

We realized that we were upper classmen and must set an example for the others. As class elections came nearer, vigorous campaigns were held, with everyone making posters. The results showed Wesley Roderiques, President; Nancy Briggs, Vice-President; Joyce Goes, Secretary; and Einar Isaksen, Treasurer. Gary Pope was elected to represent Voke in Boston on Student Government Day.

As time went on, the Senior girls worked vigorously to finish their wool coats for the wool contest which was held November 21, 1970, in Hammond Auditorium. Nancy Briggs won first prize and went on to receive first prize in the state competition.

In November, the Senior Holiday Dance was held; the theme was "Christmas" which everyone enjoyed.

Later in the year, the girls made different types of doll clothes for the Salvation Army to give to underprivileged children in New Bedford. We had a contest for the clothes for which Jackie Zager and Louise Vezina received awards for the most outstanding costumes. Many of the girls won other prizes.

As the new year began, we then realized how fast time was passing us by. Every month brought us new experiences and warm memories as the "Great Day" came closer.

In February, the cheering squad, under the leadership of Lorraine Vezina and Jackie Zager joined our great basketball team at Boston Garden for the Tech Tournament for the second year in a row.

Before we knew it, March was upon us. Andrea Simmons, the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow, recieved her award at a tea given in her honor. Also honored was Noelie Soares, winner of the Daughters of The American Revolution award for outstanding citizenship.

April rolled around with most of us involved with making Showtime a success. The girls hurried to finish their graduation gowns.

In May, all attended the Senior Class Outing held at Lincoln Woods in Lincoln, Rhode Island, and everyone had a great time. The Senior Prom and banquet was held late in the month. We met at White's Restaurant in Westport for an evening of dancing and fun.

Finally, it was time for graduation in June 2, 1971. We sat in the auditorium that evening, both nervous and excited. And as we walked across the stage and received our well-earned diplomas, it was a moment of mixed emotions, for as we looked back at our past four years at Voke, we also look ahead with wonder at what the future will bring us.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Maurice Leclair will always be remembered, by those who knew him, as a loyal and dedicated teacher.

Mr. Leclair graduated from New Bedford Vocational In 1934 and returned in 1953 to begin his career as a related instructor for the automobile department.

Mr. Leclair, a firm believer in vocational education was willing to go out of his way to help a student. His dedication will long be remembered, and his success will serve as an inspiring example for other young men of Vocational.
